Nursing Informatics
A Career Profile

Marianne E. Schmeling, MA
Senior Healthcare Development Specialist
mschmeling@chamberlain.edu

Dennis E. Schroader Sr., MEd
US Army, Retired
Military Healthcare Development Specialist
dscholeder@chamberlain.edu
What is Nursing Informatics?

INTEGRATION
Nursing Science
Computer Science
Information Science

MANAGEMENT & COMMUNICATION
Data
Information
Knowledge
Wisdom

SUPPORT
Nurses
Patients
Consumers
Providers
What Does An Informatics Nurse Do?

- Rounds on nursing units & ancillaries
- Meet with clinicians, administrators to discuss problems & strategies
- Collaborate with IT staff
- Brief executive team
- Educating
- Plan and conduct implementations
What Does An Informatics Nurse Do?

- Trouble shoot and testing
- Policy development
- Build disease-management databases
- Data mining
- Evaluate consumer-based web education program
- Examine new cost-effective technologies
Career Opportunities

• Clinical Informatics Analyst
• Clinical Informatics Coordinator
• Informatics Nurse Specialist
• Chief Nursing Information Officer
• Regional Director, Clinical Informatics
• Systems Analyst
• Clinical Systems Team Manager
• Manager, Health Outcomes Analytics
Where Do Nurse Informaticists Work?

- Hospitals
- Long-term Care
- Home Healthcare
- Schools of Nursing
- IT Companies
- Healthcare Consulting Firms
- Government Organizations
Career Profile

60% hold a post-graduate degree.

81% are satisfied with their choice of career.

Nursing Background:
- 44% general medical/surgical
- 38% critical care
- 26% administration
- 20% emergency department

Average Salary:
- 2014: $100K
- 2011: $98K
- 2007: $83K
- 2004: $69K
Skill Set

Analytical

Critical Thinking

Project Management
Where to learn more about a career in Nursing Informatics

www.ania.org

www.himss.org
Considering an Informatics Program?

Delivery methods and models

ON-SITE  HYBRID  ONLINE
What to look for when choosing a school

Learning format
- On-site
- Online
- Hybrid

Accreditation
- Institutional/Regional
- Programmatic

Student centered
- Flexible class times
- Interactive online classroom
- Support
Why Chamberlain?

- Flexible, 100% online coursework, with 24/7 access to courses
- Accelerated 8-week sessions
- Rich practicum experiences
- Personalized support
Two Chamberlain Informatics Options

MSN Informatics Specialty Track

Requirements
- BSN
- 3.0 GPA
- Active, unrestricted RN license

Graduate Certificate in Nursing Informatics

Requirements
- MSN
- 3.0 GPA
- Active, unrestricted RN license
Next Steps with Chamberlain!

Request More Information
Fill out the inquiry card or inquire at chamberlain.edu

Speak With an Admission Representative
An admission representative will answer your questions and provide program details

Apply
Your admission representative will request your transcripts and register you for your first class
More Than 450 Educational Partners

- Healthcare groups
- Hospitals
- Community Colleges
- Associations

Please click here to visit our Educational Partner page for more information!
Military Benefits

- Military Tuition Rate
- VA Educational Benefits
- National Nursing Education Initiative (NNEI)
- Deployment Policy*
- Application fee waived
- Advisors experienced with military financing options

* For those who qualify
Thank You!